

HQN has defined the romance genre by publishing the best in mainstream romance and women's fiction by the finest authors in the field. Originally a mass market paperback imprint, HQN still dominates in that format with a mix of romance royalty and diverse new voices, but also publishes a wide array of romantic women's fiction in trade paperback and hardcover by the likes of Sarah Morgan, Susan Mallery, Gena Showalter, Adriana Herrera and Audrey Carlan.

Since 2004, HQN has helped build the careers of such romance luminaries as RaeAnne Thayne, Julia London, Maisey Yates, Linda Lael Miller, Lori Foster, Brenda Jackson and Diana Palmer. And, in 2019, HQN placed forty-two titles on major industry bestseller lists and continues to offer the most entertaining reading experience for readers across all romance subgenres.

HQN Books accepts only agented submissions.

Acquiring Editors

Susan Swinwood, Editorial Director

E: Susan.Swinwood@HarperCollins.com
T: (416) 840-4741

I'm looking for: Diverse and contemporary stories told with edgy humor and a modern voice; a fresh take on small-town romance with a strong sense of community. Big hooks and a commercial voice are a must.

Cat Clyne, Editor

E: Cat.Clyne@HarperCollins.com
T: (212) 207-7357

I'm looking for: Stories I haven't heard before with a slam-dunk hook, punchy banter or a surprising take on evergreen tropes; smart rom-coms; fresh historicals with a modern feel; and twisty psychological thrillers. Particularly interested in marginalized voices, swoony heroes who upset toxic masculinity, and unforgettable characters.

Michele Bidelspach, Executive Editor

E: Michele.Bidelspach@HarperCollins.com
T: (212) 207-7965

I'm looking for: A strong voice, unforgettable characters and an irresistible hook, especially emotional contemporary romances, fresh, vibrant romantic comedies, and fast-paced romantic suspense. Always looking for BIPOC voices and stories.

Lynn Raposo, Assistant Editor

E: Lynn.Raposo @HarperCollins.com
T: (416) 515-2355

I'm looking for: Fresh stories with a strong cast of characters and transportive settings, witty rom-coms with unique hooks and genuine humor, and modern twists on classic tropes. I'm specifically interested in stories from underrepresented voices.
